Petersbourg, September 28, O. S.

THIS Court being informed that the Ruſſian Frigate which was taken by the French laſt Summer in the Baltick, was come to Copenhagen, ſix Merchant Ships have been hired to tranſport the three French Regiments to Copenhagen; and Orders are gone to Narva, where the ſaid Troops are, for their Embarkation.

Berlin, Oct. 23, N. S. The Prince Royal has ſhewn ſo immoderate a Grief on Account of the melancholly Situation in which he ſees the King his Father, that ſome fearing it might affect his Royal Highneſs's own Health, his Pruſſian Majeſty was adviſed to ſend him to his Regiment at Rupin; accordingly his Royal Highneſs went thither on Wedneſday laſt; but Yeſterday he received Orders to come to Potzdam again, the King finding himſelf drawing nearer his End.

Hague, Oct. 29, N. S. Letters which came in Yeſterday from Venice and other Parts in Italy adviſe, that Count Konigſegg having ordered a Detachment from his Army to relieve Mirandola, they paſſed the Po, of which the Marqueſs de Maillebois having Intelligence, he abandon'd on the 13th Inſtant the Siege of that Place, in order to join the main Army of the Allies, leaving behind him eight Pieces of Cannon, two Mortars and a great Quantity of Ammunition. The States of Holland ſeparated Yeſterday upon Occaſion of the Penſionary's being confined to his Bed by a Fit of the Gout, and it is thought they will not meet again till December, the Time of their ordinary Aſſembly. His moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange is not expected here before the 3d or 4th of next Month.

Dublin, October 12.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Coronation, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green: At Noon the Lords Juſtices met at the Caſtle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction; and at Night a Play was given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, October 22.

Yeſterday Morning between Seven and Eight a Clock, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, attended by a Party of the Horſe Guards, ſet out from Kenſington for Harwich, in order to embark there for Holland.
